KOO KLUX KLAN OATH

I.

We read a-bout the Koo Klux eve-ry night,
The way they meet in Klans all dress-ed in white,
To solve their mys-tery is be-yond compare,
Our loyal citizens they threaten to beware.
And so to satisfy my curiosity
A Koo-koo I said I am gonna be.

II.

The Koo Klux puzzle is our present taks,
To see what's behind the Klans-men of mask,
They go out in search without any fear,
May be for the ones that, took away our beer.
And with their aeroplanes the world they wanna scare
These daring mid-night Koo-koos of the air.

(Chorus)

I took the oath of the Klan for life,
Pledged to fear no one except my wife,
The Wizard said your initiation fee
Is fifty to the Koo-koos and fifty to me.
When you meet a Catholic or Jew,
Tar and feather them, that you must do.
Say Mister Wiz they're in my family,
So goodbye Koo-koos your Klan is not for me.
